

As you prepare for tax season, we want to help you gather all the important information and documentation necessary to file your tax returns. Whether you are hiring a professional to file for you or you plan to do it yourself, here is a checklist of the key items needed to complete the job. The best place to start is usually with last year's tax return: you can use it to reference the documents you needed to file previously. Also, if you plan to file electronically, you may need your bank account number and routing number.
