Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

CPAs are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education (typically 150 credit hours with at least a baccalaureate degree and a concentration in accounting), minimum experience levels (most states require at least one year of experience providing services that involve the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax or consulting skills, all of which must be achieved under the supervision of or verification by a CPA), and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination.

In order to maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a two-year period or 120 hours over a three-year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services.

ITEM 3 - DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Andrew Hoang holds the following professional designation:

Certified Financial Planner

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor’s degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP® -board registered program or hold an accepted designation, degree, or license. Every two years, CFP® certificate holders must complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education. More information regarding the CFP® is available at <http://www.cfp.net/default.asp>.

ITEM 3 - DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Andrew Hoang has no disciplinary history to disclose.

ITEM 4 - OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

In addition to his role with Beacon Pointe Advisors, Andrew Hoang is a licensed insurance agent for Beacon Pointe Insurance Services, LLC (“BPIS”). Beacon Pointe is affiliated with BPIS. BPIS is a licensed insurance agency. BPIS receives commissions on insurance products clients purchase, and Andrew Hoang is eligible to receive a portion of these commissions. Clients pay separate fees for advisory services and insurance products or services. This practice gives Andrew Hoang an incentive to recommend insurance products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. Clients are not obligated to act on any insurance recommendations or place any transactions through Andrew Hoang or BPIS if they decide to follow Mr. Hoang's recommendations.

ITEM 5 - ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

In addition to his regular compensation from Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, Andrew Hoang is eligible to receive compensation from the activities outlined above in Item 4 – Other Business Activities. Andrew Hoang is also eligible to receive compensation for referring new clients to Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC.

Andrew Hoang does not receive economic benefits from any person or entity other than Beacon Pointe in connection with the provision of investment advice to clients.

ITEM 6 - SUPERVISION

Kelly DiGonzini, Director of Financial Planning, is responsible for supervising Andrew Hoang's activities. Kelly DiGonzini monitors the advice provided by Andrew Hoang for consistency with client objectives and Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC's policies. Ms. DiGonzini can be reached by calling 949-718-1607.

Privacy Notice

(as required by SEC Regulation S-P)

At Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, we understand that privacy is an important concern of our customers. The nature of our business requires that we collect nonpublic personal information about you. Nonpublic personal information is personally identifiable financial information including, for example, your social security number, date of birth, income, account number and balance, account transaction history, and other financial information. We collect nonpublic personal information from the following sources:

- Information we receive about you in various agreements, applications, account opening documentation, and other forms and paperwork that pertains to your relationship with us,
- Information about your transactions with us and our service providers, or others,
- Information that you give us orally.

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. We disclose nonpublic personal information to our affiliated firms and to nonaffiliated third parties (including, but not limited to, our consultants, custodians, money managers, brokers, customer relationship management and financial planning software providers) as required or permitted by law and as needed to fulfill our compliance obligations and/or for us to best provide those products and services that we have agreed to provide to you.

We restrict access to your personal and account information to those employees who need to know that information in order to provide products and services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your nonpublic information.

The privacy policies and practices described in this notice will be maintained in the event you become an inactive customer or decide to close your account.

If, at any time in the future, it is necessary to disclose any of your personal information in a way that differs with this policy, we will give you advance notice of the proposed change and an opportunity to decline such disclosure.

Beacon Pointe Advisors is committed to protecting the confidentiality of your personal information. Let us know if you have any questions by contacting us at (949) 718-1600.
