Professional Designation

Eric Witte holds the following professional designation:

Certified Financial Planner

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor’s degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP® Board-Registered Program or hold an accepted designation, degree, or license. Every two years, CFP® certificate holders must complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education. More information regarding the CFP® is available at <http://www.cfp.net/default.asp>.

The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor’s degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP® -board registered program or hold an accepted designation, degree or license. Every two years, CFP® certificate holders must complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education. More information regarding the CFP® is available at <http://www.cfp.net/default.asp>.

ITEM 3 - DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Haley Rodriques has no disciplinary history to disclose.

ITEM 4 - OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

In addition to her role with Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, Haley Rodriques is a licensed insurance agent for Beacon Pointe Insurance Services, LLC (“BPIS”). Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC is affiliated with BPIS. BPIS is a licensed insurance agency. BPIS receives commissions on insurance products clients purchase, and Haley Rodriques is eligible to receive a portion of these commissions. Clients pay separate fees for advisory services and insurance products or services. This practice gives Haley Rodriques an incentive to recommend insurance products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. Clients are not obligated to act on any insurance recommendations or place any transactions through Haley Rodriques or BPIS if they decide to follow Ms. Rodriques' recommendations.

ITEM 5 - ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

In addition to her regular compensation from Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, Haley Rodriques is eligible to receive compensation from the activities outlined above in Item 4 – Other Business Activities. Haley Rodriques is also eligible to receive compensation for referring new clients to Beacon Pointe.

ITEM 6 - SUPERVISION

Eric Witte, Partner, Managing Director, is responsible for supervising Haley Rodriques' activities. Eric Witte monitors the advice provided by Haley Rodriques for consistency with client objectives and Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC's policies. Eric Witte can be reached by calling 844-366-2525.
