Regional Sales Representative, Oppenheimer Funds, 2011-2019

Professional Designations

Seth Guenther holds the following professional designations:

Chartered Financial Consultant®

The ChFC® designation has been a mark of excellence for financial planners for almost thirty years and currently requires more courses than any other financial planning credential. The curriculum covers extensive education and application training in all aspects of financial planning, income taxation, investments, and estate and retirement planning.

To attain the right to use the ChFC® marks, take a proctored exam for each course of study, have 3 years of full-time, relevant business experience within the five years preceding the awarding of the designation, and complete a minimum of 30 hours continuing education every two years. More information regarding the ChFC® can be found at <https://www.theamericancollege.edu/designations-degrees/ChFC>.

Chartered Life Underwriter®

The CLU® designation is conferred by The American College. To earn the credential, each CLU® candidate must take a proctored exam for each course of study, have 3 years of full-time business experience within the five years preceding the awarding of the designation, and complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education every two years. More information regarding the CLU® can be found at <http://www.cluhigheststandard.com/>.

Chartered Retirement Plans SpecialistSM (CRPS®)

The Chartered Retirement Plans SpecialistSM (CRPS®) is a credential for those who create, implement, and maintain retirement plans for businesses. Unlike most other professional financial planning and advisory professional designations, the CRPS® focuses on wholesale and business clients. It is awarded by the College for Financial Planning to individuals who pass an exam demonstrating their expertise. Every two years, CRPS® professionals must complete 16 hours of continuing education and pay a nominal fee to continue using the designation. More information regarding the CRPS® is available at <https://www.kaplanfinancial.com/wealth-management/crps>

Certified Investment Management Analyst® (CIMA®)

The CIMA designation is issued by the Investments and Wealth Institute (formerly IMCA). To earn each certification, each CIMA candidate must complete a self-study program, attend a one-week classroom education program provided by an Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (“AACSB”) accredited university business school, pass an online examination after self-study and an on-line comprehensive certification examination after meeting all requirements of a registered classroom education program and also complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education every two years. More information regarding the CIMA is available at <https://investmentsandwealth.org/certifications/welcome-to-cima>

Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® (CEBS®)

The CEBS designation is overseen by the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania and is for professionals who handle benefits for companies but want to be able to plan and negotiate packages. Candidates must complete eight courses either online or in a class setting. All students must pass an exam following completion of each of the eight courses. More information regarding the CEBS is available at <https://www.ifebp.org/cebs-designation/Pages/cebs.aspx>.
