Professional Designations

Elizabeth Bivings holds the following professional designations:

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor’s degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP® Board Registered Program or hold an accepted designation, degree or license. Every two years, CFP® certificate holders must complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education. More information regarding the CFP® is available at <http://www.cfp.net/default.asp>.

Certified Divorce Financial Analyst

The designation is issued by the Institute for Divorce Financial Analysts. The candidate is required to develop their theoretical and practical understanding and knowledge of the financial aspects of divorce by completing a comprehensive course of study. The candidate must also have two years’ minimum experience in a financial or legal capacity. The candidate must complete a four-part exam and demonstrate the practical application of this knowledge. Continuing education of 30 hours every two years is required to maintain the designation. More information on the CDFA® can be found at: <https://www.institutedfa.com/>
