Professional Designations

Michael Weil holds the following professional designations:

Certified Financial Planner

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor’s degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP® -board registered program or hold an accepted designation, degree or license. Every two years, CFP® certificate holders must complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education. More information regarding the CFP® is available at <http://www.cfp.net/default.asp>.

Certified Investment Management Analyst (“CIMA”)

The CIMA designation is issued by the Investments and Wealth Institute (formerly IMCA). To earn each certification, each CIMA candidate must complete a self-study program, attend a one-week classroom education program provided by an Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (“AACSB”) accredited university business school, pass an online examination after self-study and an on-line comprehensive certification examination after meeting all requirements of a registered classroom education program and also complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education every two years. More information regarding the CIMA is available at <https://investmentsandwealth.org/home>.
