COOPER A. BRANHAM, AIF®, CFP®

ITEM 2 - EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND AND BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Cooper A. Branham, AIF®, CFP®, Associate Wealth Advisor, b. 2002

Education:

BS, Business, Clemson University

Business Background:

Associate Wealth Advisor, Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, 2023-Present

Agent, Beacon Pointe Insurance Services, 2025-Present

Merchandiser, The Scotts Miracle-Gro Company, 2022-2023

Student, Clemson University, 2020-2023

Professional Designations

Cooper Branham holds the following professional designations:

Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIF®)

The AIF® designation is issued by the Center for Fiduciary Studies. To earn the designation, each AIF® candidate must complete either a web-based or capstone program, pass a final certification exam, and complete a minimum of 6 hours of continuing education per year. AIF® designees must also sign and agree to abide by a code of ethics. More information about the AIF® is available at <https://www.fi360.com/>.

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by the CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor’s degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP Board Registered Program or hold an accepted designation, degree or license. Every two years, CFP® certificate holders must complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education. More information about the CFP® is available at <http://www.cfp.net/default.asp>.

ITEM 3 – DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Cooper Branham has no disciplinary history to disclose.

ITEM 4 - OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

In addition to his role at Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC ("BPA"), Cooper Branham is a licensed insurance agent for Beacon Pointe Insurance Services, LLC ("BPIS"), a California-licensed insurance agency, under common ownership with BPA. BPIS receives commissions on insurance products clients purchase, and Cooper Branham may earn a portion of these commissions.

Clients pay separate fees for advisory services and insurance products or services. In this capacity, Cooper Branham may offer insurance products and receive commissions from their sales. This arrangement creates an incentive for Cooper Branham to recommend insurance products based on the compensation received, rather than focusing solely on the client's needs. Clients are not obligated to act on any insurance recommendations or conduct transactions through Cooper Branham or BPIS if they follow Cooper Branham's recommendations.

ITEM 5 - ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Cooper Branham is a salaried employee of Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, and does not receive compensation based on client assets or advisory fees. However, he is eligible to receive a one-time referral bonus based on a percentage of the estimated first-year revenue generated from new clients he refers to the firm. Mr. Branham does not receive economic benefit from any person or entity other than Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, in connection with providing investment advice to clients. The additional compensation that Cooper Branham is eligible to receive is outlined above in Item 4 – Other Business Activities.

ITEM 6 – SUPERVISION

Beacon Pointe supervises its personnel in accordance with its Code of Ethics and written compliance policies and procedures. The firm's compliance team oversees compliance with these policies and conducts periodic reviews of advisory activities, including client communications and investment recommendations, to help ensure compliance with applicable regulatory requirements.

Amanda Henderson, Director of Operations, is generally responsible for supervising Cooper Branham's day-to-day advisory activities. Ms. Henderson can be reached by calling 843-790-7093.

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

CPAs are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education (typically 150 credit hours with at least a baccalaureate degree and a concentration in accounting), minimum experience levels (most states require at least one year of experience providing services that involve the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax or consulting skills, all of which must be achieved under the supervision of or verification by a CPA), and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination.

To maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a two-year period or 120 hours over a three-year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services.
