Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by the CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor’s degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP Board Registered Program or hold an accepted designation, degree or license. Clients pay separate fees for advisory services and insurance products or services. In this capacity, Bryan Jackson may offer insurance products and receive commissions from their sales. Clients are not obligated to act on any insurance recommendations or conduct transactions through Bryan Jackson or BPIS if they follow Mr. Jackson's recommendations.

Bryan Jackson spends a portion of his time as a Registered Representative of Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments, a non-affiliated registered broker-dealer. When effecting transactions, Bryan Jackson is eligible to receive compensation, commissions and/or trailing 12b-1 fees from Purshe Kaplan Sterling Investments for products held by BPA's advisory clients. This type of transaction-related compensation creates a conflict of interest, giving Bryan Jackson an incentive to recommend investment products based on the additional compensation received.

BPA will not charge advisory fees on the portion of the client's portfolio that includes investment products for which Bryan Jackson receives commissions and/or trailing 12b-1 fees. In all instances, BPA will ensure that BPA clients are provided with a disclosure that outlines the commissions and/or trailing 12b-1 fees that Bryan Jackson receives.

In addition to his role with Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, Bryan Jackson owns a consulting company entitled Ellison Christopher, LLC. He receives compensation as an employee benefits consultant specializing in health benefits. This other business activity accounts for less than 10% of Mr. Jackson's time.
