Professional Designations

Brian Keeney holds the following professional designation:

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by the CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor’s degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP Board Registered Program or hold an accepted designation, degree or license. Every two years, CFP® certificate holders must complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education. More information about the CFP® is available at <http://www.cfp.net/default.asp>.

Registered Representative, Triad Advisors, Inc., 2015-2024

Professional Designations

John Keeney holds the following professional designation(s):

Certified Private Wealth Advisor (CPWA®)

The Certified Private Wealth Advisor (CPWA®) designation is issued by the Investments and Wealth Institute (formerly IMCA). The CPWA® designation signifies that an individual has met initial and on-going experience, ethical, education, and examination requirements for the professional designation, which is centered on management topics and strategies for high-net-worth clients. Prerequisites for the CPWA® designation are a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university or one of the following designations or licenses: CIMA®, RMA®, CFA®, CFP®, ChFC® or CPA license; acceptable regulatory history as evidenced by FINRA Form U-4 or other regulatory requirements; five years of professional client-centered experience in financial services or a related industry; and successfully complete a comprehensive background check. CPWA® designees must complete a six-month pre-class educational component and a five-day classroom education program through The University of Chicago Booth School of Business. CPWA® designees are required to adhere to the Investments & Wealth Institute's Code of Professional Responsibility and the appropriate use of certification marks. CPWA® designees must report 40 hours of continuing education credits, including two ethics hours, every two years to maintain the certification. More information regarding the CPWA is available at <https://investmentsandwealth.org/>.

Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor (CRPC®)

The Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor (CRPC®) designation is a retirement planning credential awarded by the College for Financial Planning® to individuals who meet its educational, examination and ethical requirements. To earn a CRPC® designation, candidates are required to have completed the CRPC® Designation Program, a self-taught educational program focused on various pre- and post- retirement needs of individuals. Recipients are further required to have successfully passed a multiple-choice examination addressing a range of retirement-related matters, such as estate planning and asset management. On an ongoing basis, CRPC® designees are also required to affirm their adherence to the applicable Code of Ethics and complete at least 16 hours of continuing education every two years. More information about the CRPC is available at <https://www.cffp.edu/>.

Chartered Retirement Plans SpecialistSM (CRPS[®])

The Chartered Retirement Plans SpecialistSM (CRPS[®]) is a credential for those who create, implement, and maintain retirement plans for businesses. Unlike most other professional financial planning and advisory professional designations, the CRPS[®] focuses on wholesale and business clients. It is awarded by the College for Financial Planning to individuals who pass an exam demonstrating their expertise. Every two years, CRPS[®] professionals must complete 16 hours of continuing education and pay a nominal fee to continue using the designation. More information regarding the CRPS[®] is available at <https://www.kaplanfinancial.com/wealth-management>
