Professional Designations

Rachael Nickelsen holds the following professional designations:

Accredited Wealth Management Advisor (AWMA™)

The Accredited Wealth Management Advisor, or AWMA™ program, is issued by the College for Financial Planning – a Kaplan Company. The program is designated for advisors who want to better address the unique needs of high-net-worth clients. The program’s one-of-a-kind curriculum contains sections dedicated to behavioral finance, working with small business owners, and succession/exit planning. Individuals who hold the AWMA™ designation have completed a course of study encompassing wealth strategies, equity-based compensation plans, tax reduction alternatives, and asset protection alternatives. Additionally, individuals must pass an end-of-course examination that tests their ability to synthesize complex concepts and apply theoretical concepts to real-life situations. More information about the AWMA™ is available at <https://www.kaplanfinancial.com/wealth-management>.

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP® Board”). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by the CFP® Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor’s degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP Board Registered Program or hold an accepted designation, degree or license. Every two years, CFP® certificate holders must complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education. More information about the CFP® is available at <http://www.cfp.net/default.asp>.

Retirement Income Certified Professional (RICP®)

The Retirement Income Certified Professional (RICP®) is a service provider professional trained to understand how to structure an effective retirement income plan, how to mitigate risks to the plan, and how to create a sustainable stream of income to last throughout a client's retirement years. More information about the RICP® is available at <https://www.theamericancollege.edu/learn/professional-designations-certifications/ricp>.
