JASON A. GUENTHER, CEPA®, CFP®

ITEM 2 - EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND AND BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Jason A. Guenther, CEPA®, CFP®, Senior Wealth Advisor, b. 1975

Education:

BS, Psychology, Michigan State University

BA, Finance, Michigan State University

Business Background:

Senior Wealth Advisor, Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, 2026-Present

Agent, Beacon Pointe Insurance Services, LLC, 2026-Present

Senior Wealth Advisor, Stephens Wealth Management Group, 2012-2025

Professional Designations

Jason Guenther holds the following professional designations:

Certified Exit Planning Advisor, (CEPA®)

The Certified Exit Planning Advisor (CEPA®) designation is awarded by the Exit Planning Institute. The candidate must complete a five-day MBA style program that concludes with a proctored exam. Candidates must also meet all the following requirements:

- Five years of full-time or equivalent experience working directly with business owners as a financial advisor, attorney, CPA, business-broker, investment banker, commercial lender, estate planner, insurance professional, business consultant or in a related capacity.
- Undergraduate degree from a qualifying institution; if no qualifying degree candidate must submit additional professional work experience (two years of relevant professional experience may be substituted for each year of required undergraduate studies).
- Continuing Education: To retain the CEPA designation the designee must obtain 40 hours of Continuing Education ("CE") every three years and remain in good standing with Exit Planning Institute.

More information is available at The Exit Planning Institute

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and CFP® (collectively, the "CFP® marks") are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP® Board"). The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. The CFP® is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. CFP® certificate holders are bound by the CFP® Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

To earn the credential, each CFP® candidate must have a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must take the CFP® Certification examination and complete a CFP Board Registered Program or hold an accepted designation, degree or license. Every two years, CFP® certificate holders must complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education. More information about the CFP® is available at <http://www.cfp.net/default.asp>.

ITEM 3 – DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Jason Guenther has no disciplinary history to disclose.

ITEM 4 - OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

In addition to his role at Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC ("BPA"), Jason Guenther is a licensed insurance agent for Beacon Pointe Insurance Services, LLC ("BPIS"), a California-licensed insurance agency, under common ownership with BPA. BPIS receives commissions on insurance products clients purchase, and Jason Guenther may earn a portion of these commissions.

Clients pay separate fees for advisory services and insurance products or services. In this capacity, Jason Guenther may offer insurance products and receive commissions from their sales. This arrangement creates an incentive for Jason Guenther to recommend insurance products based on the compensation received, rather than focusing solely on the client's needs. Clients are not obligated to act on any insurance recommendations or conduct transactions through Jason Guenther or BPIS if they follow Mr. Guenther's recommendations.

ITEM 5 - ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Jason Guenther's compensation comes from Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC. He receives a salary and variable compensation that is based on the assets under management in the client accounts he services. Mr. Guenther does not receive economic benefit from any person or entity other than Beacon Pointe Advisors, LLC, in connection with providing investment advice to clients. The additional compensation that Jason Guenther is eligible to receive is outlined above in Item 4 – Other Business Activities.

ITEM 6 – SUPERVISION

Beacon Pointe supervises its personnel in accordance with its Code of Ethics and written compliance policies and procedures. The firm's compliance team oversees compliance with these policies and conducts periodic reviews of advisory activities, to help ensure compliance with applicable regulatory requirements.

Kimberly Waldman, Managing Director, is generally responsible for supervising Jason Guenther's day-to-day advisory activities. Ms. Waldman can be reached by calling 810-732-7411.

JESSICA E. GRYBEL, CDFA®

ITEM 2 - EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND AND BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Jessica E. Grybel, CDFA®, Wealth Advisor, b. 1993

Certified Plan Fiduciary Advisor (CPFA®)

The Certified Plan Fiduciary Advisor (CPFA®) credential is issued by the National Association of Plan Advisors. The CPFA® was developed by some of the nation's leading advisors and retirement plan experts and demonstrates those with knowledge, expertise, and commitment to working with retirement plans. Financial advisors who earn their CPFA® designation demonstrate the expertise required to act as a plan fiduciary or help 401(k) plan fiduciaries manage their roles and responsibilities. More information about the CPFA® is available at <https://napacpfa.org/>.

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

CPAs are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education (typically 150 credit hours with at least a baccalaureate degree and a concentration in accounting), minimum experience levels (most states require at least one year of experience providing services that involve the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax or consulting skills, all of which must be achieved under the supervision of or verification by a CPA), and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination.

To maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a two-year period or 120 hours over a three-year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services.
